First Negro Trooper to Be Speaker

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — The first Negro trooper to serve with the Arkansas State Police was selected Tuesday by those attending a basic recruit school at the Arkansas Law Enforcement Academy to be commencement day speaker.

Marion Taylor, 28, of Little Rock, who joined the ASP last July, received six letters of commendation for dedication to duty while attending the recruit school when he was with the Little Rock Police Department.

Taylor, a native of Dermott, was assigned to the highway patrol division until last October when he transferred to the Safety Education Division where he is presently assigned in Little Rock.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller also is scheduled to speak also at the ceremonies at the academy here today.

Large Motel May Close at Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — One of Hot Springs' largest motels is scheduled to close Sunday noon because of a lack of business and "cooperation of community leaders."

The closing of the Aristocrat Motor Inn, a seven-story, 150-room facility completed in Downtown Hot Springs in 1963, was attributed to the lack of business due to a "closed town" policy and failure of the legislature to pass a mixed drink bill.

Harold Lang, Aristocrat manager, said Tuesday that a mixed drink bill "would have permitted us to compete with other cities for convention business."

The closing order came from the trustees of the Central, Southeast and Southwest States Pension Fund, a Teamsters Union operated fund, Lang said.

The trustees, acting as judgment creditors, bought the Aristocrat for $1,777,706 at public sale last week, after securing a judgment in that amount against the Waukesha Building Corp., which built the inn.

Will Try to Fire Guard in Panama

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

Associated Press Writer
PANAMA (AP) — Hoarse from tear gas in a confrontation with the Panama National Guard, the president installed by the National Assembly said Tuesday night he would try to fire the guard's commander today.

President Max Delvalle, his cabinet and legislators were kept from meeting in the assembly Tuesday by Brig. Gen. Bolivar Vallarino, commander of the 4,000-man guard, the country's only armed force. Rioting followed.

Vallarino told The Associated Press: "There are not two presidents in Panama. The constitutional president is Marco A. Robles unless the Supreme Court rules otherwise, in which case the National Guard will abide by that pronouncement." The court convenes Monday.

Robles was ousted by the assembly Sunday in a 30-0 impeachment conviction on charges that he violated the constitution by promoting a candidate to succeed him in the May 12 elections.

Delvalle seemed cheerful as he spoke with newsmen after a cabinet meeting in his suburban home. He would not say what was discussed at the meeting but asserted the dismissal of Vallarino and all four of his top subchiefs probably would be acted on today.

Downtown Panama appeared quiet Tuesday night after guardsmen dispersed crowds with tear gas and rifle shots, and seven persons were treated for gunshot wounds. Delvalle and his deputies, caught briefly in the melee outside the assembly hall, ducked into their cars and drove away.

A large group of newsmen and cameramen were engulfed in tear gas and a hail of flying objects. Associated Press photographer James Bourdier was struck in the ankle by a grapefruit-sized rock but was not badly hurt.

Police arrested one member of the opposition today and sought another on charges of possessing Molotov cocktails, bombs made by filling bottles with gasoline.

Workers Forced to Kick-in to Democrats at Meet on U.S. Time

By JEAN HELLER

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A veteran civil servant charged today that he and other high-level employees of the Maritime Administration were summoned to a business hours meeting last week and pressured by their boss to contribute to a Democratic party fund-raising dinner.

The employee told the Associated Press the meeting was called by James W. Gulick, acting head of the Maritime Administration, for 79 members of his staff who had received invitations to the $250-a-platedinner to be held April 4.

Gulick reportedly told those present that contributions were not being sought by arm twisting. But, the source said, Gulick added:

"If you want to make sure that you have a nice, clean file — and you can be sure that a file is kept somewhere — you know what to do."

Gulick denied he made such a statement.

"There was no pressure, no solicitation and whatever they wanted to do was in accordance with their own circumstances and their own positions," he said. "I'm inclined to think that this is a small minority that wants to think this way. I'm just at a loss to understand why."

John J. McCarthy, deputy general counsel for the Civil Service Commission, said his office was checking into the allegation that contributions were solicited and that if the findings warrant it, "We will investigate up to the hilt."

The invitations to the dinner, being given by Rep. Michael Kirwan, D-Ohio, and Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, for President Johnson, went to 12,000 persons, including government personnel with a pay-grade level of GS-15 and above whose salaries range from $18,400 up.

The meeting on the question of contributions was called by Gulick for 11 a.m. last Thursday in a conference room near his office in the General Accounting Office building.

Gulick arrived at 11:10 a.m. with his general counsel, Carl C. Davis.

The source said Gulick took his place at the head of a long table before a standing-room-only crowd and said:

"I'm going to lay it on the line. I'm going to give it to you as it was given to me."

"C. R. Smith wisely turned this over to Howard Samuels and Bob Lee passed it on to me. (The references were to the new secretary of commerce, the undersecretary of commerce and the special assistant to the secretary for public affairs, respectively.)

"C.R. Smith feels that $250 is too much. He thinks that perhaps $50 would be about right. Maybe some of you would like to go in together. You know it

Rules Judge Can't Increase Punishment

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office said Tuesday that a trial judge cannot increase the period of punishment assessed by a jury.

Deputy Atty. Gen. Rodney T. Parham said the opinion involved interpretation of Act 50 of 1968, the new Department of Correction Act, Section 28 of the act provides that persons sentenced to less than life imprisonment are "eligible for parole at any time, unless a minimum time to be served is imposed."

Parham said in the opinion requested by Circuit Judge William J. Kirby of Little Rock that a trial judge could not fix a minimum sentence where a jury assessed a maximum sentence.

ligence-gathering organization incapable of supervising pacification, "a very worthwhile program."

But, he said, the CIA was primary supervisor of the program and the cost is not known since funding is from CIA sources not subject to public inspection.

Roche said 50,000 South Vietnamese pacification workers were "recruited, trained and paid under the auspices of the Central Intelligence Agency."

Ambassador Robert W. Komer, head of the U.S. pacification program, replied that Roche was involved in supply operations and had "no contact whatsoever in more than a year with our other programs. The guy must be making it up."

Kennedy Turns Guns on Nixon

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy — carrying his Democratic presidential campaign into Republican Idaho country — has turned his political guns from President Johnson to GOP candidate Richard M. Nixon.

Nixon, Kennedy told a Pocatello, Idaho, college crowd Tuesday, "has had no new ideas in the past decade. (He) says what we are doing is wrong, but we should just do more of it."

The New York senator's jet-age campaign swing moved into Utah today. By Saturday he will have covered a third of the 50 states in two weeks.

In other political developments:

— President Johnson is backed for renomination by 14 of the nation's 24 Democratic governors, an Associated Press survey shows. Only one, Phillip H. Hoff of Vermont, commits himself to Kennedy. Another, Harold E. Hughes of Iowa, said he leans toward Kennedy or Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

— McCarthy faced a mutiny by his top press aides, Seymour Hersh and Mary Lou Oates. But campaign advisor Richard M. Goodwin called the dispute a "tempest in a teapot."

— Nixon appeared likely to be able to write his own platform at the Republican National Convention. GOP moderates plan to gather ideas to help shape it, at Convention. GOP moderates plan to gather ideas to help shape it, but Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., platform committee chairman, said he suspects their ideas may be lost in the drafting.

— Alabamian Gov. George C. Wallace carried his third party presidential candidacy into three southern states — criticizing the major parties and candidate Kennedy in particular.

Kennedy and McCarthy, both concentrating their anti-Vietnam war policy campaigns heavily on college and university campuses, took varying stands Tuesday on the draft issue.

McCarthy drew cheers from students in Wausau, Wis., by calling for the removal of draft director Lewis B. Hershey.

"Men like Hershey," McCarthy said, "must be replaced by administrators who understand that the object of the draft is to defend democracy, not to suppress free speech."

Sign Now for Doctor Bill Insurance

Hempstead County residents born before July 1961 and have not enrolled for doctor-bill insurance under Medicare now have a last chance to sign up. Otis A. Blackwood, District Manager of the Taxarkana Social Security Office said today.

If they do not sign up by April 1, they will not have another chance to be covered by the provisions of the Medicare program that helps pay doctor bills and other medical expenses.

This coverage will involve a $4.40 monthly premium, ten percent more than those who enroll before they are 65 will pay, and will be effective July 1.

The Taxarkana Social Security Office remains open until 7:45 p.m. each Thursday night to take care of those people who are unable to come in during normal working hours. In addition, the office will be open until 9:00 p.m. on Monday, April 1, so those people who have not enrolled will have an opportunity to do so.

BATTLE

chinese gun fire and a barrage of rocket-propelled grenades.

With the battle still raging, at least eight enemy dead were reported.

Meanwhile, U.S. headquarters said in another fight in the Trang Bang sector, 25th Division units killed 17 enemy after making a helicopter assault Tuesday four miles northeast of the town.

As the American infantrymen hit the ground, the Viet Cong were waiting for them. From trenches and bunkers, the enemy opened up with machine guns and rocket-propelled grenades.

By midafternoon today, sporadic fighting was reported continuing. Headquarters did not disclose U.S. casualties but said no Americans had been killed.

The action around Trang Bang is part of Operation Quyet Thang—Resolved to Win—the biggest allied offensive of the war.

More than 50 American and South Vietnamese battalions, totaling 50,000 men, are sweeping through five provinces around Saigon. The aim is to regain the offensive from the Viet Cong and to destroy enemy troops within striking distance of the capital.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

ADVICE TO MANUFACTURERS

Dear Helen: Reading the constant walls of suspicious wives I got a wild idea. Why doesn't a manufacturer bring out a shirt with "lipstick" marks in varying colors all over it? This for men who would camouflage the evidence?—B.B.

Dear B: Manufacturers take note. I'll bet a lip-marked shirt would go over big—not with husbands, but with wives who just adore buying nutty clothes men won't wear. . . . then insisting they wear them as conversation pieces.—H.

Dear Helen: There's a locker room joke that goes, "Hey, Egbert, when did you start wearing a girldie?"—"Since my wife found it in the glove compartment."

So why is it hilarious when a man wears a girldie? A lot of guys, due to beer, middle-age slump, etc., need more stomach control than do gals.

They're looking men with advertisements for hair spray, sexy-smelling colognes, hair dye, flashy clothes, "styling" appointments with a specialist who is no longer a mere barber, is curbing their vast waistlines any more effeminate?

Won't somebody come right out and tell the old boys they would look 100 percent better in girldies? Just think: No more pants belted below the "hangover" . . . No more droopy seats!—FOR TRIMMER MALES

Dear FTM: . . . And no more relaxed comfort! I somehow don't see men curing their "hangovers" with elastic. But then I never thought they'd come to back-combing their hair and paste-on moustaches.

Again, manufacturers take note: Maybe there's a bigger market here than you think.—H.

Dear Helen: So often we hear of the evils of Welfare, never a thank-you voice.

Seven years ago my husband, a chronic alcoholic, walked out, leaving me with six children. I chose between work which would take me away from my very young children, and Welfare. Welfare won.

Our oldest son, 13, had been in trouble several times, possibly due to the tensions at home. So I especially realized how important it was to have one full-time parent.

It didn't take the neighbors long to catch on where the support came from. These lovely people I had known for years stopped speaking, even left hate-letters on my door. I was a leech, taking their hard-earned tax money.

The greatest resentment came from the fact that my children dressed as well or better than theirs. They wouldn't see that a good manager can make a small income go a long way.

Despite the snubs, I am a happy woman who is most grateful to the County Welfare for allowing me to be home with my children. Their friends do not descend. They are living a normal, wholesome life.

Tonight my youngest son petted his sick puppy and crooned, "Don't worry, Mother is ALWAYS here to take care of US." Helen, this did more to dispel my doubts and dissolve the cruelties than anything could.

Our lives could so easily have been a miserable shambles had it not been for the Department of Welfare in our County.—NEW JERSEY MOTHER

Dear Helen: My wife went home to mother ten months ago, taking our daughter with her. I write to her every day, but no answer. Her mother is on my side. She tells me how they are.

How can I get it to stick in my wife's mind that I love her and want her and our baby back?—J.B.W.

Dear J: Tell her in person. If you and her mother combine forces over a long weekend you may persuade her it's better to be a wife than a child. Good luck!—H.

I won't get to see "Spartacus" today or tomorrow—and this is a really big spectacle with Kirk Douglas which you can still see today or tomorrow—it's one of the better ones of its kind.

Friday and Saturday we've got another all action show at the Saenger for young and old "Konga" a jungle thriller and "Destination Inner Space". This is quite a pair—a "King Kong" type jungle thriller—and a futuristic adventure!

On our late show—this day nite and tomorrow seem to be more popular with the "in" crowd every week) we're bringing you the wonderful, wacky "Rosie" with Roz Russell and Sandra Dee—it's a goodie for all, and plays Sunday and Monday too.

With warmer weather promised, everyone should go out to the Dixie Drive-In this Friday, Saturday or Sunday and see "Africa Texas Style", plus "The Busybody". All we can say is we're pretty sure you'll get a lot of enjoyment out of both of these big screen color hits.

Penalty Aids Victory of Pittsburgh

By BRUCE F. LOWITT

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Don't bother to look in the scoring and penalty summaries for a hooking infraction against Eddie Joyal of Los Angeles. As far as the scorer's concerned, it never happened in the Kings' National Hockey League game against the Pittsburgh Penguins Tuesday night.

The penalty that was called and never served helped Pittsburgh edge Los Angeles 2-1 in the only game scheduled. The setback dimmed the Kings' hopes for a first-place finish in the West Division.

And the victory brightened Pittsburgh's chances of catching fourth-place St. Louis and snaring the last West Division berth for the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Los Angeles, with two games left, remained tied with Philadelphia for the division lead. The Flyers have four games remaining.

Pittsburgh, with three games to go, is three points behind the Blues, who have four to play.

Midway in the first period, with the game still scoreless, a penalty was signaled by referee Bob Sloan against Joyal. But with Pittsburgh controlling the puck, goalie Les Binkley of the Penguins raced off the ice and was replaced by a sixth skater as the action continued.

Finally, during a scramble in front of King goalie Terry Sawchuk, the Penguins' Earl Ingarfield slammed the puck into the Los Angeles goal. The sixth man, Wayne Hicks, along with Leo Bolvin, picked up an assist. With the tally, the penalty against Joyal was nullified.

Oldtimers Looking for New Jobs

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Spring training will be a little late this year for Jim Kaat, but Bob Shaw and Jim O'Toole are wondering whether it will come at all for them.

Shaw and O'Toole, two of baseball's top pitchers several years ago, were looking for employment today after the Chicago White Sox dropped them Tuesday. At the same time, the Sox gave veteran slugger Rocky Colavito a new chance by selling him to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Kaat, Minnesota's ace left-hander who pitched the Twins to the 1966 pennant, started his spring training Monday by hurling 15 minutes of batting practice, and that was as far as he got. The sore elbow that plagued him last year was back again. Kaat's next appearance is not expected until after the season begins April 8.

Jim Bunning, however, indicated he still is one of the National League's indestructible pitchers as he tuned up for an expected leading role in Pittsburgh's pennant chase.

The new Pirate, acquired from Philadelphia last winter, hurled a two-hitter for eight innings as Pittsburgh defeated Boston 2-1 on Manny Mota's two-run homer in the first.

In other games, Cincinnati belted Los Angeles 7-2, the New York Mets blanked St. Louis 1-0, Atlanta edged Baltimore 2-1, Detroit clobbered Washington 8-0, San Francisco nipped the Chicago Cubs 3-2, California bounced Cleveland 6-2, Minnesota topped the New York Yankees 4-2 and the White Sox shut out Oakland 4-0.

The 29-year-old Kaat, who won 25 games in 1966, fell to 16-13 last season. A snapped ligament in his left elbow suffered last Sept. 30 failed to heal completely during the winter.

The elbow still twinges when he throws breaking pitches and Minnesota trainer George Lentz said Kaat will do no more pitching in regular spring training. Twins' President Calvin Griffith said there is a strong possibility Kaat will be on the 15-day disabled list at the start of the season.

Shaw, 34, a 10-year veteran who pitched the White Sox to the 1959 pennant and later starred for Milwaukee and San Francisco, planned to contact Boston and Pittsburgh for a trial.

O'Toole, 31, whose 19 victories helped Cincinnati to the 1961 pennant, had a sore shoulder most of 1967 after the Sox acquired him from the Reds. He and Shaw each started this season as free agents.

Colavito, 34, a homer-hitting outfielder picked up by the Sox in their 1967 pennant struggle, lost his job in spring training to two rookies, Buddy Bradford and Bill Boss.

A former World Series hero, pitcher Larry Sherry, was cut by the Houston Astros, who also named outfielder Jackie Brandt a player-coach with Dallas-Fort Worth in the Texas League.

Minnesota got by without Kaat, the scheduled starter Tuesday as Jim Perry and rookie Moe Ogler stopped the Yankees and John Roseboro slammed a two-run single in the eighth inning.

Cisco Carlos, Bob Priddy, Wilbur Wood and Hoyt Wilhelm stopped the A's on six hits in the White Sox victory.

Pitcher Cecil Upshaw singled home a run in the bottom of the ninth with two out for Atlanta's triumph. The Mets scored their first run in 28 innings on ninth-inning doubles by Bud Harrelson and Ken Boswell while Nolan Ryan, Bill Short and Dan Felsella blanked the Cardinals.

San Francisco also won in the ninth as Cub Manager Leo Durocher was ejected for protesting a pitch and reliever Pete Mikkelsen let in the winning run on a wild pitch off throw to first base.

Home runs helped decide the other three games as Lee May slammed a three-run blast for Cincinnati, Bill Freehan cracked one with two on for Detroit and California's Chuck Hinton and Roger Repoz connected for five runs.

Chicago Cubs Are Sure to Be Exciting

By JIM CHURCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Leo Durocher getting thrown out of games... Lou Johnson trying to stretch a triple into an inside - the - park home run... Ernie Banks coming through with clutch hits.

That will be the Chicago Cubs of 1968 as the exciting young club makes a run for the Cubs' first National League pennant since 1945.

Durocher, who has been in professional baseball since 1925 and has managed teams to three pennants, took over the Cubs in 1966. That year they finished last but in 1967 the young pitchers kept them in the pennant chase until August, and the team finished third, 14 games behind St. Louis.

The stars of the mound staff, Ken Holtzman, 22, and Ferguson Jenkins, 24, were hit hard in their early spring training outings.

"I'm not worried," said Durocher. "They'll come around." Holtzman won six straight last year, went into active reserve duty and won three more pitching on weekends. Jenkins, 20-13 with a 2.80 earned average in 289 innings last year, gave up nine hits and six runs in his first three exhibition innings. Holtzman, in his first six innings, allowed eight hits and six runs.

Joe Niekro, a 23-year-old right-hander who was 10-7 last year, started well in the spring, giving up four hits and no runs in six innings.

The fourth prospective starter, Rich Nye, 23, gave up seven hits and four runs in his first six innings. The left-hander was 13-10 last year.

Of those trying to make the staff for the first time, Dick Calmus, 24, Jim Ellis, 23, Dick Gardner, 23, and Frank Reberger, 23, have been impressive.

In the infield, the Cubs are set with Randy Hundley behind the plate, Banks at first, Glenn Beckert at second, Don Kessinger at short and Ron Santo, who hit 31 homers last year, at third.

Bill Plummer, John Stephenson and John Dudek are battling for the No. 2 catching job. Stephenson is the only one with major league experience, having hit .224 in 18 games last year.

Banks, 37, hit .276 with 23 homers last year in his 15th major league season. He and center fielder Adolfo Phillips led the team in runs batted in through the first seven exhibition games.

Beckert, 27, could be one of the best at second, says Durocher. "I think he can hit .300," said Durocher. "He's hit at least .280 the last two seasons and he seldom strikes out."

Durocher is high on rookie infielder Jose Arcia, 24, who hit .219 for Little Rock in the Pacific Coast League last season.

"There's no way he'll leave us," said Durocher. "He's been playing short because Kessinger has been on active reserve duty, but he's a heckuva second baseman, too. Why do you think I let Paul Popovich go to the Dodgers?"

Johnson, who hit .270 for the Dodgers last season, was cut down trying to stretch a triple into a homer against the California Angels despite the warning of coach Pete Reiser.

"He's scrappy and hitting the ball well," Durocher says of "Sweet Lou," who has played for 13 teams in the past 17 seasons.

Solid hitting Billy Williams, .278 with 28 homers last year, will be in left. Ted Savage appears to have the edge on Byron Browne and Al Spangler as the fourth outfielder.

Hayes Has Caused First Salary War

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The first player salary war between the two major professional basketball leagues may develop over the signing of Elvin Hayes.

The San Diego Rockets have won the National Basketball Association draft rights to the Houston Cougar All-American and reportedly are ready to pay Hayes the price tag of $300,000 for three years which he has placed on himself.

The Houston Mavericks of the new American Basketball Association said Tuesday they are willing to offer Hayes $500,000 for the same period.

"If he isn't worth $750,000 to San Diego with their television contracts, he would be getting shortchanged," said Slater Martin, general manager and coach of the Houston team.

The 6-8 Hayes met privately at San Diego late Tuesday with Bob Breitbard, owner of the Rockets. Hayes was not available for comment following the meeting.

However, Breitbard said he hoped to sign Hayes before he returns to college.

"I'm interested in building a good basketball team, and Hayes is the man I need to do it," Breitbard said.

Hayes had indicated he would rather play in the NBA. However, this was prior to the Houston salary announcement.

"They (San Diego) have a young team and the only place for them to go is up," Hayes said earlier. "I think I can be as great an asset to them as they can be to me. If they meet my price I'm ready to sign."

The ABA draft will not be held until April 8 but the Mavericks announced two weeks ago they had obtained the league's negotiation rights for Hayes.

Hayes can accept the Houston offer as the two leagues do not have a working agreement under which they forbid any player from seeking the best possible contract.

Jim Ryun Has Some Leg Trouble

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Kansas miler Jim Ryun has an appointment with the doctor today about a strained hamstring muscle in his left leg suffered during a workout Tuesday.

The Topeka, Kan., orthopedic specialist, Dr. Bernard Joyce, suggested that Ryun be kept in the hospital overnight, and that the leg be packed in ice to reduce swelling.

Ryun said he felt a twinge in the leg and pulled off the track at the end of his 110-yard stint in the 440 relay workout.

He holds the world record in the mile at 3:51.1, and in the 1,500 meters at 3:33.1.

NAIA Team Has Some Repeaters

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Three repeaters appear on the NAIA All-Star basketball team chosen by coaches.

For the third straight year Henry Logan, Western Carolina, N.C., is on the first team. The other repeaters are Darryl Jones, St. Benedict's, Kan., and Richard Harris, Manchester, Ind.

Others named to the first team today by the NAIA Basketball Coaches Association are Jim Healey, Rockhurst, Mo.; Willie Scott, Alabama State; Bob Kauffman, Guilford, N.C.; Charles Paulk, Northeastern Okla., State.

Also Ron Kornegay, Monmouth, N.J.; Gene Littles, High Point, N.C., and Loyd Higgins, Pasadena, Calif.

Five SWC Teams in Training

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Five Southwest Conference football teams now are engaged in spring training.

Southern Methodist was the latest to hit the gridiron. One hundred candidates greeted Coach Hayden Fry Tuesday.

The squad was immediately thrown into scrimmage and five major personnel changes made, one of them sending hard-running fullback Daryl Doggett to defensive back.

Baylor, Rice, Texas and Texas Tech previously had opened spring workouts.

Texas A&M, Texas Christian and Arkansas are yet to start training.

Competition Keen in Ski Events

By JACK SCHREIBMAN

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif. (AP) — A smashing finish is being prepared for one of the most controversial and bitterly fought seasons in top ski-racing competition. For the Americans it was one of their poorest seasons.

At Heavenly Valley in the snowy Sierra and in San Francisco 200 miles away, parties and banquets will mark the 19th and last of the 1967-68 World Cup Races from April 5 to 7.

Some 150 of the world's best skiers will race slalom and giant slaloms down the face of Heavenly Valley, near the glittering gaming dens just over the Nevada state line.

Western ski fans are getting ready for a major disappointment if the French phenom, Jean-Claude Killy, fails to show up for the World Cup finale. At Sun Valley, Idaho, last weekend, after France, thanks to Killy, won the American International team meet, Killy said he might enter only the Rossland, B.C., World Cup contest this weekend and stay away from Heavenly Valley.

That's how sure the Olympic triple gold medalist is that he has the men's cup locked up for the second straight year. Killy, who counts his victories by tenths and hundredths of a second, is reputed to ski only as quick as he has to for a victory.

If Killy doesn't show up in California, it would save Austrian downhiller Karl Schranz the trouble of ignoring Le Superman. Schranz contends Killy stole the Olympic men's slalom gold medal from him. Schranz was disqualified for missing two gates.

A racing star certain to show is Canadian darling Nancy "Tiger" Greene, who is trying for her second consecutive World Cup women's crown. She's ahead so far but is under threat from Annie Famose and Isabelle Mir of France.

Once again the Americans are being all but shut out by the French. But no one can take away the sparkle of the tremendous comeback by 1964 Olympic medalist Bill Kidd, 24, of Stowe, Vt.

Kidd, whose beautiful style and technical ability on the snow have made him the most admired American racer, has been plagued by assorted wrenching accidents and broken limbs. But he shrugged all that off at Aspen, Colo., recently by winning the men's slalom four places ahead of Killy.

More Issues in Open Tennis Play

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Popular Manuel Santana of Spain, rated by many as the world's top amateur player, added a poignant dissent today to the question of open tennis.

"Open tennis will be tough on the kids," he said. "For that reason, I hate to see it come." "Open tennis will be beautiful to watch. People will see the best players. I have no worries. I welcome the challenge to play against the pros."

"But the kids—they will be left out in the cold. I love tennis. I like kids. I was one of them once."

The 29-year-old Santana, a 10-year Davis Cup veteran plays America's Arthur Ashe tonight in the feature quarter-final match of the Garden Challenge Cup International Tennis Tournament.

Two men's and two women's matches are on the card at Madison Square Garden, leaving until Thursday the remaining quarter-final matches.

Other matches tonight send Clark Graebner of New York against Yugoslavia's young Zlatko Franulovic, second-seeded Ann Haydon Jones of England against Francoise Durr, of France and Judy Tegart of Australia against Kathy Harter, of Seal Beach, Calif.

Billie Jean King of Berkeley, Calif., queen of women's tennis, plays Winnie Shaw of Scotland Thursday. Mrs. King, who will sign a fat pro contract next week, needed only 37 minutes to dispose of Elena Subrats, of Mexico 6-0, 6-2.

Liberty Church Drive for Attendance

The Liberty Baptist Church, on California just off the Rossion Road, set a new attendance record for the second Sunday in a row Sunday in its continuing participation in the March to Sunday School in March attendance contest.

The average Sunday School attendance at the church for the year 1967 was 31. The attendance the past two Sundays was 69 and 76. The average for the month of March to this time is 66.

The March to Sunday School in March contest is sponsored by the National Sunday School Association, and is participated in by thousands of conservative churches from over the nation. The Liberty Baptist Church fellowships in the American Baptist Association.

Sunday was also Youth Sunday at the church. The young people took part in leading the services, with some acting as ushers, others acting as music directors and pianists, and others as masters of ceremony for the services. Sunday climaxed a youth weekend, which also feted a fellowship social Friday night, and youth visitation Saturday afternoon.

Next Sunday the church will put on its final drive for the month with the goal set at 80. A large picture of the church has been made (8 by 30 inches). Pieces of the picture will be sent to all those who are encouraged, to attend the services. Each person must bring his part of the picture with him to Sunday School Sunday so that it may be put back together. The theme for the day is, "Put Liberty in the Picture."

This is the first attendance drive the church has been able to participate in since the completion of its new educational building in the late fall. Dr. Kenneth Bazar is pastor of the church.

Fulbright May Have Opposition

EARLE, Ark. (AP)—A prominent businessman and farmer said Tuesday he was "seriously considering" seeking this year the Senate position held by Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark.

Charles T. Bernard, 40, of Earle, who is the state Republican party treasurer, said he hadn't conferred with Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller about his plans, but he would make up his mind in about three weeks. Rockefeller has said the Republicans would furnish opposition for Fulbright this year. Bernard said he would be more "hawkish" than Fulbright, one of the Senate's doves, but said he didn't agree with President Johnson's Vietnam policy in its entirety.

"If my decision (to run) is affirmative, then I'll answer questions in regard to Vietnam," he said. "I would feel I should... have ideas about it and I will want to crystallize those ideas in the next few weeks."

The former Democrat said he switched to the GOP three years ago because "I believe in the philosophy of the Republican party both at the national and state levels."

Bernard, who has been treasurer of the state party 18 months and is a member of the party's executive committee, said he was not active in politics until he became a Republican.

Bernard has a chain of dry cleaning establishments throughout the South. He also is a cotton ginner and president of the Southern Cotton Ginners Association.

Small Nation Gives Grant

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Liechtenstein, the fourth smallest country in the world, has awarded a research grant of $4,750 to the University of Tennessee Medical Units.

The agency is engaged in a research project studying the freeze-etching technique of studying cells.

The technique was developed by a Liechtenstein biologist, Hans Moor. A scientific instrument company in Liechtenstein is among the few companies that make apparatus for the technique.

GOOD YEAR 4-PLY NYLON CORD

Introducing the new ALL-WEATHER IV

"GOODYEAR NATION-WIDE 'NO LIMIT' GUARANTEE"

No limit on months. No limit on miles. For the first time, no limit as to how long a Goodyear tire will last. NEW GOODYEAR ALL-WEATHER IV tires are guaranteed against defects in workmanship and materials and normal road wear, except for punctures, cuts, and other damage caused by misuse. This guarantee does not extend to such things as overloading, improper inflation, or use on trucks, or racing tires and tires used in "burnouts" or "burning rubber."

This guarantee is one of more than 1500 Goodyear dealers in the United States and Canada will, at our option, either repair or make allowance on a comparable new tire based on original tread design, depth, remaining and Goodyear's "Phantom" Price for Adjustment. This price will fairly represent the actual retail selling price of the comparable tire at time of adjustment.

- Your best tire buy in its price range
- Extra mileage Tufsyn Rubber
- Track tested for 100 miles at 100 miles per hour

Smaller Car Size Lower Priced

$9.95
6.50x13 blackwall tubeless plus $1.21 Fed. Ex. Tax and old tire

USE OUR RAIN CHECK PROGRAM. Because of an expected heavy demand for All-Weather IV tires, we may run out of some sizes during this offer, but we will be happy to order your size tire at the advertised price shown in price box and issue you a rain check for future delivery of the merchandise.

Today we are umpires in a dispute between North and South. Playing at four spades, South had to follow while West cashed his ace and king of clubs. West shifted to a spade and South was in but he had no way to collect 10 tricks. He had lost two clubs, and now proceeded to give up a heart trick. Later on this allowed him to discard a diamond on dummy's fourth heart, but he still had to concede the setting trick to the ace of diamonds.

North felt that South's four spade call was bad. He pointed out that with 16 high card points he had shown admirable restraint in not going right to four spades himself, and for proof of his brilliance North pointed out that South did make three spades.

South felt that he would

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Hyperinsulinism—A Puzzling Condition

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Having received several questions about hypoglycemia or hyperinsulinism, I will try to clarify some features of this puzzling condition. Its chief characteristic is an abnormally low blood sugar level (the normal fasting level is 60 to 100). Hypoglycemia is not a single disease as several different types are recognized. In the commonest form, a person whose nervous system is high-strung secretes an overabundance of insulin two to four hours after a meal that is high in sugars and starches. These persons must follow a diet that is low in carbohydrates. They will get plenty of sugars and starches in foods that are rich in protein. The fats in their diet will supply the needed energy.

Although hypoglycemia is the opposite of diabetes, which is characterized by an insulin deficiency, a few persons with mild diabetes produce an overabundance of insulin when their blood sugar level reaches the diabetic level (over 120). This rebound reaction pulls the blood sugar level below normal and causes the symptoms of hypoglycemia—sweating, weakness, trembling, anxiety, hunger and nausea. Hypoglycemia also occurs from time to time in diabetics who get an overdose of insulin. Another type of hypoglycemia is caused by a tumor of the pancreas in which the amount of functioning insulin-producing tissue is increased. When such a tumor is recognized, it should be removed because, even though it is benign, it may become cancerous in time.

Thus it can be seen that, although all of the diseases resulting in a low blood sugar may produce the same symptoms, all cannot be expected to respond to the same treatment.

Q—What is the fastest-growing tree?
A—Discounting bamboo, which is not botanically classified as a tree, it is the Eucalyptus saligna which, in central Africa, has been measured to grow 45 feet in two years.

Q—Why are certain shrimps called "ghost shrimps"?
A—Because of their whitish-yellow color. Since they spend most of their life below the surface of the mud, no protective coloration is needed.

Nixon Likely to Write the Platform

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Unless something untoward happens to him on the way to the nomination at the August convention, Richard M. Nixon is likely to become editor-in-chief of the Republican platform.

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen will be in charge of drafting the platform planks. Dirksen is a reasonable man in such matters, wise in the ways of nominating conventions.

No one has to tell the Illinois senator that if Nixon looks like a certain winner before the convention opens, what the former vice president wants in the platform is what will wind up in that document.

The Republican governors created a months-long uproar in an effort to force GOP National Chairman Ray C. Bliss to name Gov. Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania as a co-chairman with Dirksen of the platform committee.

The governors contended publicly they wanted representation of their generally moderate viewpoint in the platform.

Privately they were against having the aging Dirksen claim the television spotlight in reading that platform to the convention. They feared it would distort the youthful image they have tried to fashion for their party.

Dirksen talked at a co-chairman. Bliss stood fast behind him. The governors gave up but decided to hold their own series of regional hearings on platform proposals.

They will whip these proposals together and turn them over to Dirksen's committee. These proposed planks will be stacked alongside rough-drafted planks taken from more than 30 statements on national issues by the Republican Policy Coordinating Committee.

Then the compromise planning and cutting will begin. This is the point at which Nixon, if he has the necessary majority of delegate votes in his pocket, will step in.

Nixon has said he will confer with all of the 26 GOP governors, among others, about what they think ought to be in the platform. Unless he encounters unexpected opposition from some candidate who has yet to surface, he will have great latitude in editing the final draft.

While Nixon has supported use of whatever military force is necessary in Vietnam, he will want an alternative to President Johnson's war course that will give him the opportunity to promise peace if elected.

He will have had part of a hot summer to come up with some suggestions on how to curb and cure the rioting in the slums.

Those who now profess that Nixon is too conservative for their tastes may be pleasantly surprised by the results. They have forgotten that in 1960 he was an "Eisenhower" Republican, a label that then meant progressive.

Folksinger, Pacifist Are Married

NEW YORK (AP) — The guests dressed mod, the wedding ceremony was adapted to honor draft resisters and after the vows everyone—including bride Joan Baez—stood up and sang gospel songs.

Thus were Miss Baez, 27, the folksinger and pacifist, and draft resister David Harris, 22, married Tuesday in a ceremony at St. Clement's Episcopal Church on Manhattan's West Side.

The bride in a long white dress and the groom in blue suit, blue shirt and maroon tie were among the more conservatively dressed.

Among the 150 guests and friends, many of the girls wore long, flowered dresses and the men sported bright flowered ties. A number of persons wore yellow buttons reading "Celebrate Life."

The Rev. Thomas Lee Hayes, head of the Episcopal Peace Fellowship, said the ceremony he conducted was adapted from the Canadian Book of Common Prayer "in honor of all who are resisting the draft here and in Canada."

Warren Says He Dislikes Police Spies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chief Justice Earl Warren has made clear to a California prosecutor he doesn't like the use of police undercover agents who lie to suspects in order to confuse them.

Her lawyer, F. Lee Bailey, urged reversal of the conviction, saying police planted an undercover agent in the jail cell occupied by Mrs. Miller after her arrest for the 1964 fire death of her husband, Gordon E. Miller.

Reds Alarmed Over Czech Liberals

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovak Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek said today fellow Communist leaders he met with at Dresden, East Germany, last weekend expressed "a certain concern" over the Czech liberalization drive.

New critical statements against the most liberal Czech elements came Tuesday night from party ideologists in East Berlin and Budapest, Hungary. But approval of developments was voiced by the leader of the Italian Communist party.

Dubcek, who replaced the old-line boss, Antonin Novotny, as party head, also disclosed that Communist leaders agreed that an economic summit conference should be held soon.

He told the Czechoslovak News Agency that Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin spoke at Dresden "on problems and prospects of economic growth in Socialist (Communist) countries."

Kosygin asked that the forthgo to Europe with her children. But Mrs. Miller also told the police agent her husband died accidentally in the fire which swept their car.

coming conference "find new and realistic ways for the development of economic cooperation."

This line indicates growing Russian concern over lack of economic assistance among Communist bloc members and moves by several members such as Czechoslovakia to step up trade with the West.

In East Berlin Tuesday night, Kurt Hager, secretary of the East German Communist party's central committee, denounced Czech Forestry Minister Josef Smrkovsky, a leading candidate for the presidency. The Czech party presidium is to choose the president Saturday from among four candidates.

Hager charged that Smrkovsky's speeches have given the West German government—the hope that Czechoslovakia would break from the Communist bloc.

ness, "They seem to be right up to it in fashions and everything else," she said. "They stick together and go to the same places more than teen-agers do in Australia."

"The teen-agers there mix with the older people more. They're not on their own so much. But I suppose teen-agers are pretty much the same everywhere."

"The biggest complaint Australian parents have about teen-agers is the time they get home. I'm supposed to be home by midnight after a party. But we live 30 miles from Sydney—too far out to have a proper time if I get home by midnight."

Teen-age monopolization of the family telephone is also a problem in the land down under.

"I talk about 1 1/2 hours a night on the phone," confessed Janette. "What do we talk about? Oh, who did what and why—everything and nothing much—you just ramble on."

"While I'm talking on the phone I usually sit and watch the television, so I'll have something else to do. A lot of non-sense, isn't it?"

How about teen-age dating? "Some girls start dating at 12 or 13, but most don't make a habit of it until 15 or 16. Then they go everywhere together. The girl and her steady exchange friendship rings. I don't like that myself, I couldn't be tied down as yet, Not me."

The things Janette wants to see most in America are the White House and Disneyland. She has had a ride on the subway here and found it "dirtier and noisier" than a journey on one back home.

Her personal heroine is Julie Andrews. Her heroes are actor Albert Finney, President Johnson and Sen. Robert E. Kennedy.

Of Sen. Kennedy she remarked: "I loved his brother so much. The whole world seemed to go down after he died."

Of her first few days in America she said: "Everything here is on the grand scale. Everybody who comes to our country says we are hospitable, but you are even more friendly over here."

"We are worried about Viet-

Prison Graves Report Sent to Clark

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said Tuesday he had sent a State Police report of its investigation of the grave diggings at Cummins Prison Farm to U.S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark for his evaluation.

The investigation was ordered after three skeletons were exhumed Jan. 29 from unmarked graves at Cummins Prison Farm and touched off speculation that the skeletons may have come from an unmarked graveyard for murdered convicts.

Clark said he would send a team just as you are. Australia feels closer to America now—closer than England at the moment."

Upon leaving Janette, I wondered if the world situation wouldn't be better if every country picked wholesome teen-agers as its ambassadors. It would at least give diplomacy more sparkling appeal.

Senate Votes to Override IRS on Industrial Bonds

Hempstead county may not lose its right to attract a 100-million-dollar paper mill to McNab with tax-exempt industrial bonds if the House of Representatives follows the Senate's action yesterday.

The Internal Revenue Service, acting under authority delegated to it by the Congress, revoked the tax exemption this month, which meant that while Little River county was permitted to sell tax-exempt bonds to help construction of the Nekoosa-Edwards paper mill near Ashdown Hempstead county would be denied the right to aid U.S. Plywood-Champion Papers build a projected mill at McNab around 1970 — a denial which might well cost us the entire venture.

But yesterday the United States Senate voted 51 to 32 to override the IRS and restore the tax-exemption of industrial bonds. "Tax exemption" in this instance is something of a misnomer. It is more an industrial incentive than a tax exemption. Here's how industrial tax-exempt bonds work:

A city or county votes a bond issue to build a plant for a reliable industry coming into the community, then leases the plant to the industry and covers the bond issue with the rent the industry pays.

A citizen buys such bonds. But because of their tax-exemption the interest return is very low. A typical industrial bond returns you 3.75 per cent interest, which is tax exempt. Otherwise, to get the same after-tax return from a bond that was taxable you would have to get perhaps 6 per cent from the bond in order to come out with 3.75 per cent after federal income tax. So either class of bond adds up to the same thing as far as the bond-buyer is concerned.

The Internal Revenue Service screams that exemption of industrial bonds last year alone cost the Treasury 75 millions in revenue. This is absurd. If the exemption removal stands there won't be any more industrial bonds — and you don't lose taxes when there's no sale.

Who gets the "break" on industrial bond tax exemption? Not the bond buyer — but the state and community which gain new industrial plants because of these bonds . . . and Arkansas has gained 227 new factories.

Sensors McClellan and Fulbright stood with the majority yesterday in overriding the IRS action against exemption. And the size of the majority — 51 to 32 — shows that Arkansas isn't alone, and that the House of Representatives may go the same way.

Congress never had any business delegating such a vital tax authority to the IRS, a bureau controlled by the President — and the flagrant political pressure brought on the IRS by the White House in the industrial bond case now justifies Congress in recovering a tax power which has belonged to Congress alone ever since our Constitution was written.

Plane Ticket Tax Approved by Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee approved today a minimum tax program designed to reduce U.S. tourist spending abroad but postponed action on President Johnson's major recommendation in this field.

The committee sent to the House a bill calling for a five per cent tax on airplane tickets to destinations outside the United States and for a reduction in the amount of goods returning tourists may bring in duty free.

It said, however, that action on the expenditure tax that was to provide most of the balance of payments savings in Johnson's program will be postponed until the administration comes up with recommendations on special import duties or other international trade measures also designed to correct the imbalance in international payments.

Undersecretary of the Treasury Joseph Barr told reporters after the committee session he does not know when the trade recommendation may be forthcoming, or even for sure whether there will be any.

Senators See Approval of Proposed Take Hike and Slash in Spending

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sponsors predict the Senate will approve their bid to combine President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent income-tax surcharge with a $6 billion spending cut. But they concede it's doubtful the House will buy such a plan.

The Senate was scheduled to vote late today on the combination proposal, which is an amendment to the House-passed bill extending excise taxes on cars and telephone service.

Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., a co-sponsor of the tax-spending cut legislation, said key members of the House ways and Means Committee have told him they would not accept it.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the Ways and Means Committee has opposed Johnson's tax-hike proposal and exerts a powerful influence over his committee. In addition, the House committee traditionally originates all tax legislation and is not likely to surrender that role to the Senate.

Congress took these key actions Tuesday:

— The Ways and Means Committee rejected the President's proposal for a tourist tax on Americans who travel outside the Western Hemisphere, a plan he said would help cut the balance of payments deficit by keeping dollars home.

A final committee vote is scheduled today but sources indicated the result would be the same.

— The Senate voted 51 to 32 to override a Treasury Department order against the increasing use of tax-exempt municipal bonds to finance new industrial plants for private firms.

The Treasury last Friday had canceled the tax exemption privilege for new issues of the industrial development bonds.

A department spokesman estimated the government lost more than $75 million in revenue last year through the issuance of such bonds. The department contends the original idea of tax-exempt bonds was to finance the building of public facilities rather than plants for private industry.

Local Man Fails in Try at Robbery

TEXARKANA — An attempted armed robbery of Gordon Quality Jewelers, 205 West Broad, late Monday didn't turn out so well for a 33-year-old Hope, Ark. man. He didn't even get money, all he got was a cut on the head and a trip to the hospital.

Patrolman Larry Harrison identified the man as William C. Houston. Harrison said Houston walked into the store and apparently thought James Reid, owner of a jewelry store across the street, who was visiting in Gordons, was an employee and tried to rob him.

Reid told officers that he was standing by the cash register when the man walked up and stuck a pocket knife against his back and said, "This is a holdup. Open the cash register or I'll cut you."

Reid said when the man said that he stepped back. "When he stepped back I turned around and hit him. When he fell I took the knife out of his hand," Reid said.

Houston was taken to Wadley Hospital where he received treatment for a laceration of the head and later taken to the police station where he was charged with assault with intent to rob. Also investigating were Patrolmen Jim Hipple, John Goza and Tony Breed.

Teen-age Ambassador Beauty-Meet Janette McLeod of Australia

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — She is slender and tall and lovely and blue-eyed and fair-haired and terribly young and has that odd mixture of pessimism and optimism found only in youth.

"The world is in a bit of a muddle now," said Janette McLeod, 17, who represents Australia in the "Miss Teen International Pageant" at Los Angeles April 13. "There are a lot of things that are happening at the moment and they don't look as if they'll have an end to them."

"But I don't think the world will end in my lifetime. It had better not."

"I used to have a dream — all the time — that the sun would go down sometime, and never come out again. I'd like to know what that dream means. It's frightening. It could happen."

At 17, of course, anything can happen. Miss McLeod, who quit school a year ago to study commercial art, became a fashion and television model instead. If she wins against nine other competitors in the "Miss Teen International" contest next month, she is hopeful the victory will serve as a springboard to an international career in films, television or modeling.

Janette, who has been an outdoor girl all her life, isn't too hopeful of her prospects.

"I'm a bit too wholesome," she said. "I weigh 127 pounds and am 5 feet 8½ inches tall — that does sound better than saying 5 feet, doesn't it?"

Janette, who is extremely self-possessed for her age, is the daughter of a Sydney bakery owner. Her mother is a former district commissioner of the Girl Guides, who are equivalent to our Girl Scouts.

American teenagers have impressed Janette with their vitality and vigorous reach for fresh-

Living Costs Again Show Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose three-tenths of one per cent in February, rising for the fifth straight month at an annual rate of 4 per cent, the Labor Department said today.

At the same time wholesale prices took the biggest monthly jump in two years, seven-tenths of one per cent, including a sharp 1.5 per cent rise in food costs that will probably be reflected later in grocery prices.

"It does appear it will continue to go up," Commissioner Arnold Chase of the Bureau of Labor Statistics said of the rise in the cost of living.

The February increase brought the consumer price index to 119.0, meaning it cost $11.90 last month to purchase typical family goods and services worth $10 in the 1957-59 period on which the index is based.

Some Shower Activity Is Possible

The threat of some scattered showers and possible thunderstorms is the biggest weather news for Arkansas as typical spring weather continues over the state.

The shower activity will accompany a Pacific cold front that is expected to enter Northwest Arkansas late this afternoon. The showers will be most likely in western areas late this afternoon and in central and eastern areas tonight and Thursday.

Temperatures are not expected to change much with passage of the front.

High temperatures Tuesday ranged from 76 at Fort Smith to 70 at Clarendon. Overnight lows ranged from 52 at Fayetteville and Harrison to 40 at El Dorado.

Battle for Hamlet in Fourth Day

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — American infantrymen supported by tanks, artillery and planes battled the Viet Cong today for control of a tiny hamlet northwest of Saigon in the fourth straight day of heavy fighting in the area.

Men of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division called in artillery and napalm air strikes only 50 to 100 yards ahead of them as they advanced into the hamlet of Ap Long Muc about 30 miles northwest of Saigon near the district town of Trang Bang.

U.S. and South Vietnamese forces have reported killing 396 enemy in the Trang Bang area since Sunday. Allied casualties were described as light.

Al Chang, an Associated Press photographer who was wounded slightly by shrapnel as U.S. tanks and armored personnel carriers moved up on Ap Long Muc, said the Viet Cong were well entrenched in the hamlet and greeted the advancing infantrymen with heavy machine guns.

Declares CIA Finances Pacification

By BARRY KRAMER

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Central Intelligence Agency provides "a fairly substantial part" of the equipment and funds for South Vietnam's pacification effort, an informed official said today.

The source commented after a resigning U.S. official said the CIA supervises and funds the pacification program.

CIA funding of the program "is a matter of public knowledge," said the source, who is fully informed on the U.S. role in pacification. He declined to estimate the dollar value of CIA support, saying only that it was substantial.

He added that support of the pacification program was being transferred to the Department of Defense.

The source said American advisers to Vietnamese officials in the pacification program included CIA agents as well as military officers, State Department and U.S. Information Service personnel.

In a letter of resignation as a field coordinator for the New Life-hamlet-development program, Sidney J. Roche complained that the CIA is an intelligence agency.

Landowners Told Bond Necessary

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A group of Little River County landowners were told Tuesday to post a supersedeas bond before the Southwest Arkansas Water District will be enjoined from releasing water through a canal across their property to a paper company.

The Arkansas Supreme Court said the bond would reimburse the water district or paper company if any damages should result from the requested delay. No amount for the bond was set.

The water district condemned part of the 19 plaintiffs' land to build a canal for the privately owned Nekoosa-Edwards Paper Co. The landowners contend eminent domain is legal only when the land is to be used for a public purpose.

Circuit Court at Little Rock ruled in favor of the district and the landowners appealed to the high court, which has not ruled on the matter yet.

Eugene B. Hale Jr., attorney for the group, filed a petition to stop the $45-million plant at Ashdown from flooding the seven-mile canal at its dedication ceremonies Friday.

Hale said Tuesday he was advising his clients to raise money for a bond but that he had not reached all of them.
